

PRIORITY NEWSLETTER NR 1/MAY 2019

Welcome to the first newsletter of the PRIORITY project!

PRIORITY: PRomotIng Open Resilient Inclusive sociETies for Youth is a Key Action 3 project, Support for Policy Reform, co-funded by the Erasmus+ programme that involves youth organisations and networks, cultural and sports organisations, lifelong learning and training centers, as well as private and public entities from Germany, Greece, Italy and Romania. It aims to foster inclusion, integration and active participation of young disadvantaged people through the organisation of cultural, art, sport and educational activities that raise young people's awareness about social values, EU citizenship and civic engagement, volunteering and Human Rights. PRIORITY runs from January 2019 until January 2022.

PRIORITY Objectives

- Involve and train first-line practitioners on the ground: they will be the first point of contact for young individuals at risk of marginalisation and radicalisation.
- Design innovative methods and solutions of multi-agency, multi-disciplinary cooperation in order to foster the social inclusion of disadvantaged youth at risk of marginalization.
- Develop, test and upscale safe inclusion youth environments named "PRIORITY Hubs" with a bottom – up approach and youth initiative that will be based on cross sectoral cooperation of local stakeholders that support youth inclusion with tailor-made activities/interventions adapted to local circumstances.
